This information is provided for those unit owners wanting to do minor touch-ups on their front doors. Anything beyond that should be done by a professional painter since the metal door surface requires proper preparation and application.

Painting of the front door by anyone other a recommended Association contractor is done at unit owner risk for the cost of necessary refinishing, repairs, etc.

For an Association contractor, please contact the Association's Administrator to arrange for contractor contact. Unit owners will coordinate directly with the Association contractor. Unit owner payment (by check or cash) is required at time of service.
